

We can use computers for many tasks. We need to keep all of our work safe and organised. This makes it easy to find and reopen. To organise our work, we use files and folders.

A file saves information on a computer. It can be of any type. There are different types of files:

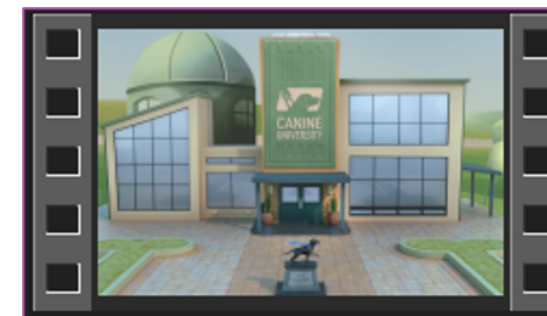

Document

Image

Music

Video