

Overview

Description of the project

The project focusses on exploring different types of computer devices and how to operate a computer. It also emphasises on the healthy practices one should follow while using a computer.

