

3) Move objects

We can move files or folders on a computer. We can use the left-click button to select an object. Then we can move it to another location. This is also called drag and drop.

To move an object, follow these steps:

- Select the object you want to drag with the left click button
- Keep the left click pressed down
- Drag the object to the new location
- Release the left click