

4) Open files, folders or software

We need to open a file to read, write, see or hear data on computer. To open a file, folder or software, follow these steps:

- Select the object you want to open
- Click the left button of the mouse two times (double click). This will open the selected object.

