

Your Digital Notepad

A Smart & Clean Way to Write Stories and Poems

Why write on a computer?

Paper & Ink

Difficult to correct mistakes.
Looks untidy when crossed out.

The Digital Canvas

Correct mistakes instantly.
Always looks tidy and clean.

Meet Your Digital Canvas

Say hello to Notepad. Your personal space to create without worrying about making mistakes!

Write freely

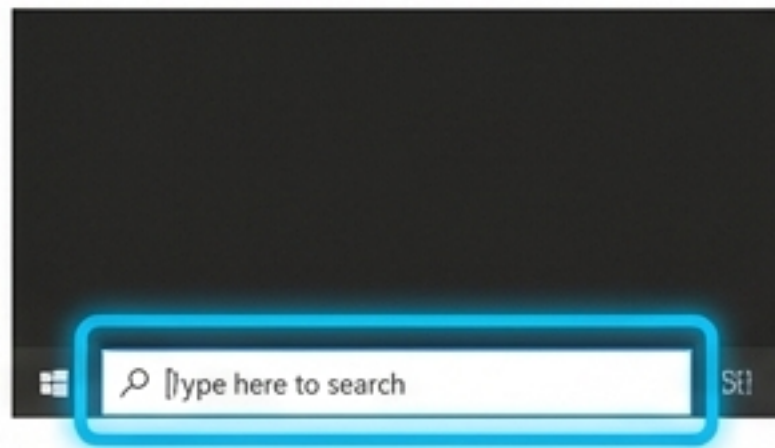

Edit instantly

Save forever

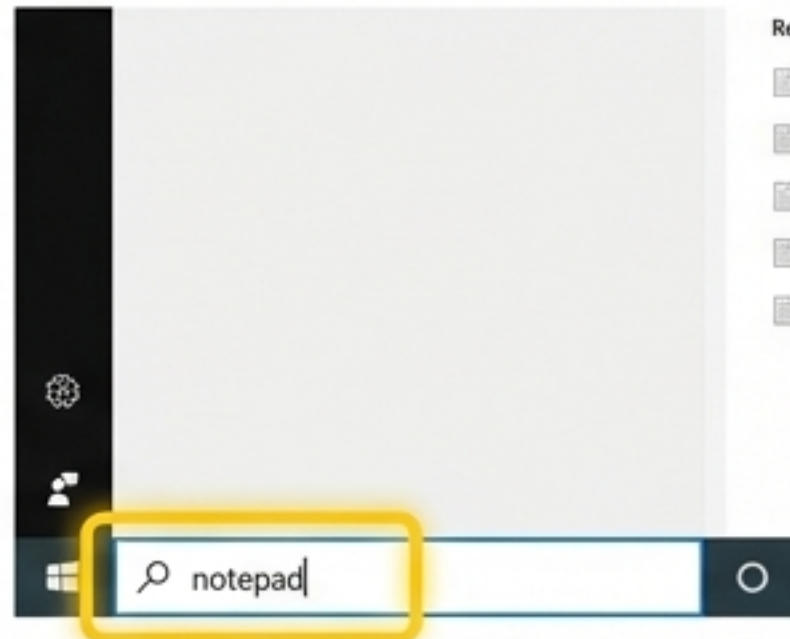

Three quick steps to open your canvas.

STEP
1

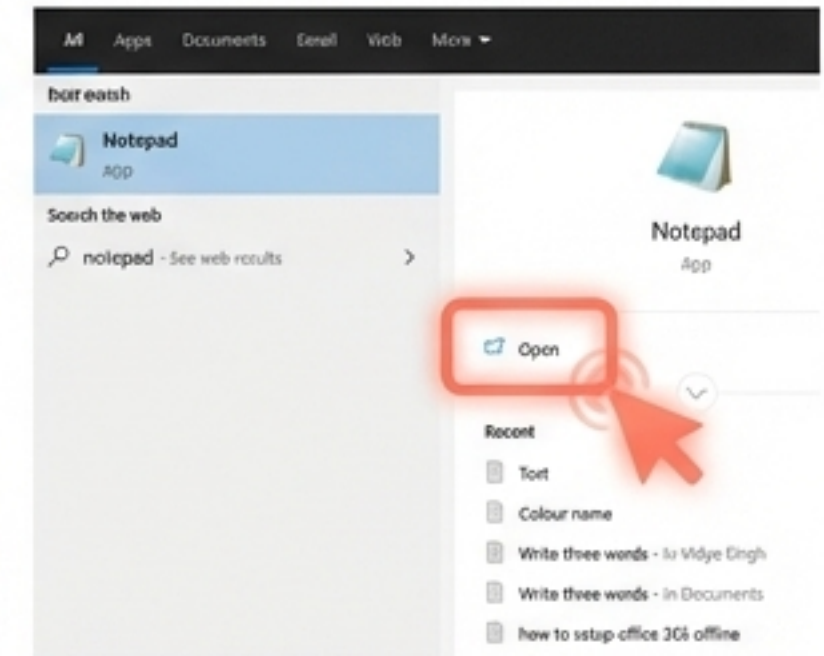

Click the Search Bar.

STEP
2

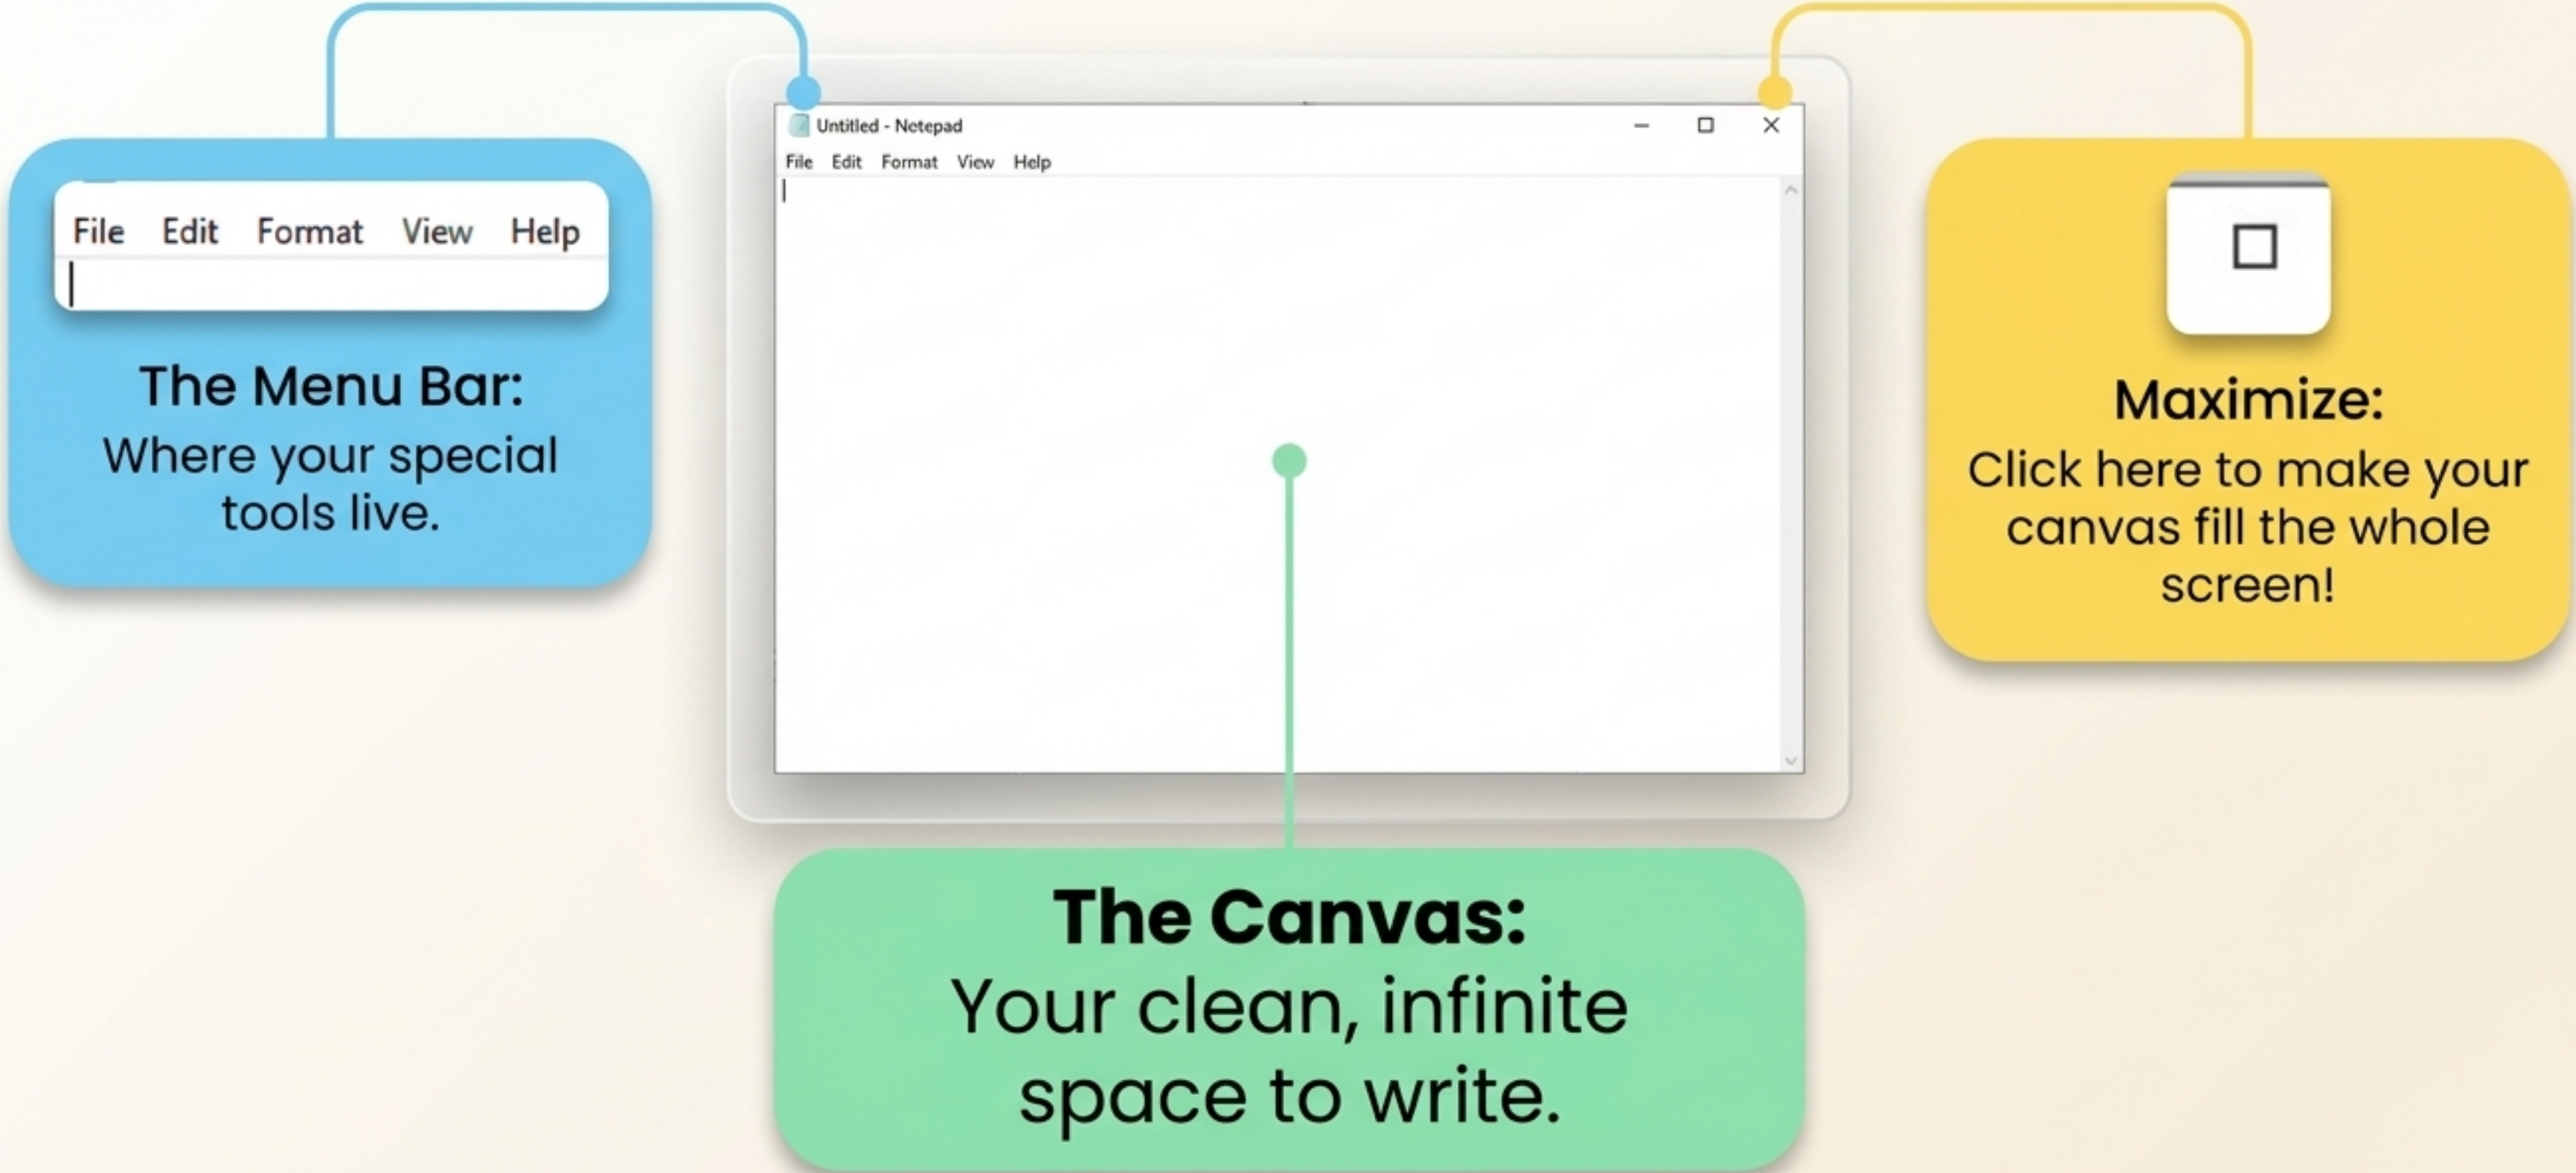

Type 'notepad'.

STEP
3

Click Open.

Getting to know your workspace.

The diagram illustrates the components of a workspace. A central window titled 'Untitled - Notepad' is shown with a menu bar (File, Edit, Format, View, Help) and a large canvas. Three callout boxes are connected to the window: a blue box on the left points to the menu bar, a green box at the bottom points to the canvas, and a yellow box on the right points to the maximize button in the window's title bar.

File Edit Format View Help

The Menu Bar:
Where your special tools live.

The Canvas:
Your clean, infinite space to write.

Maximize:

Click here to make your canvas fill the whole screen!

Bring your words to life.

Just use your keyboard to start typing your masterpiece.

Notice how clean the text looks?

“Once I saw a little bird...”

The Magic of Copy & Paste: Part 1

Save time! Let the computer do the hard work of writing the same word again.

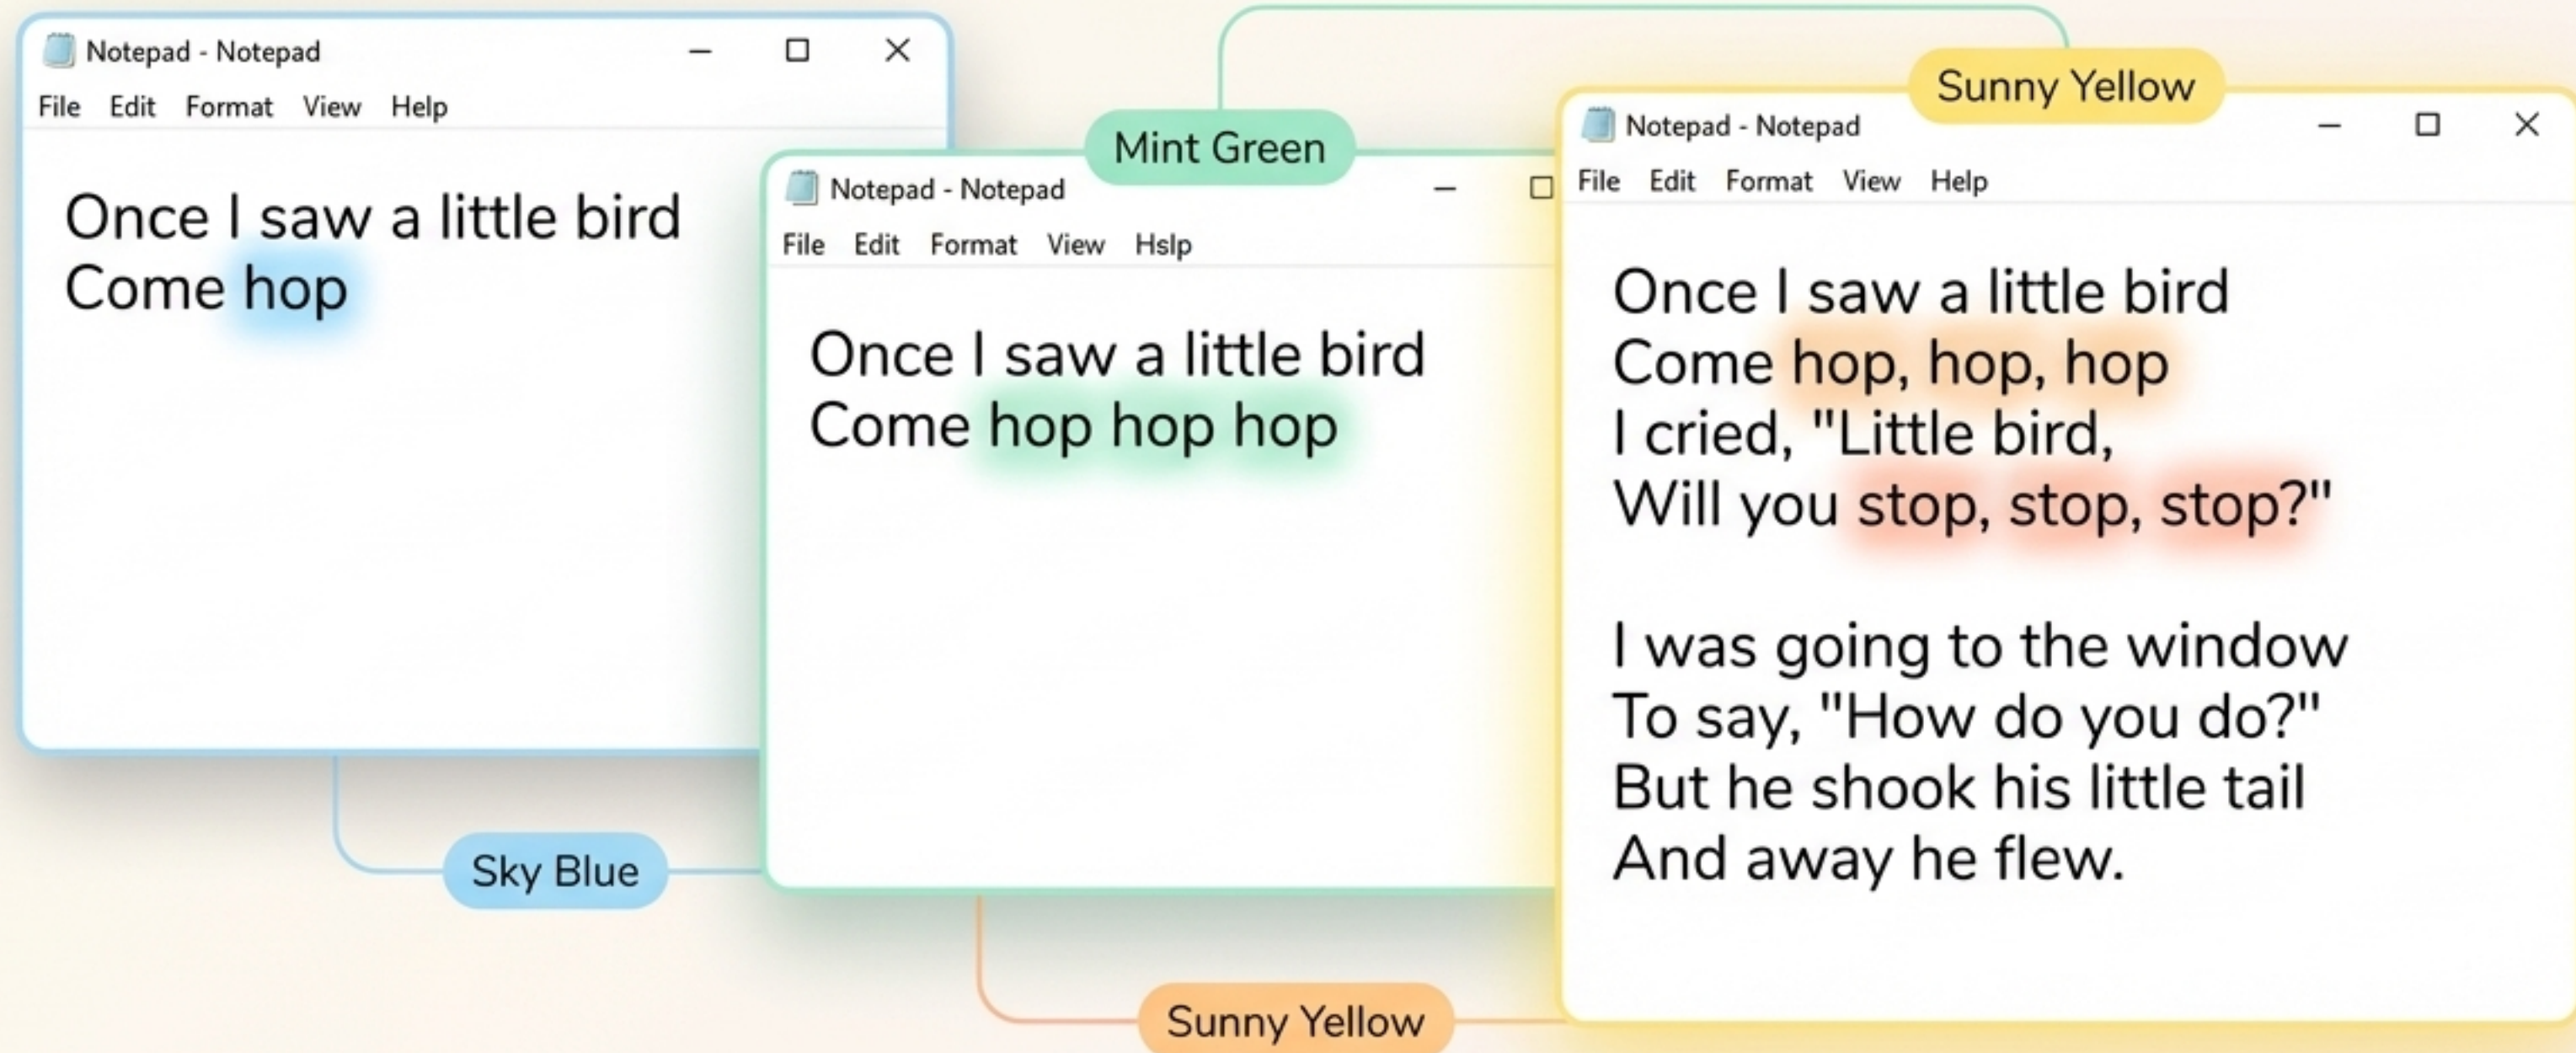

1. Click and drag to highlight the word you want to repeat.

2. Click Edit, then choose Copy. The computer remembers it!

The Magic of Copy & Paste: Part 2

Click Edit > Paste to repeat your copied words instantly.
Look how fast we finished the poem!

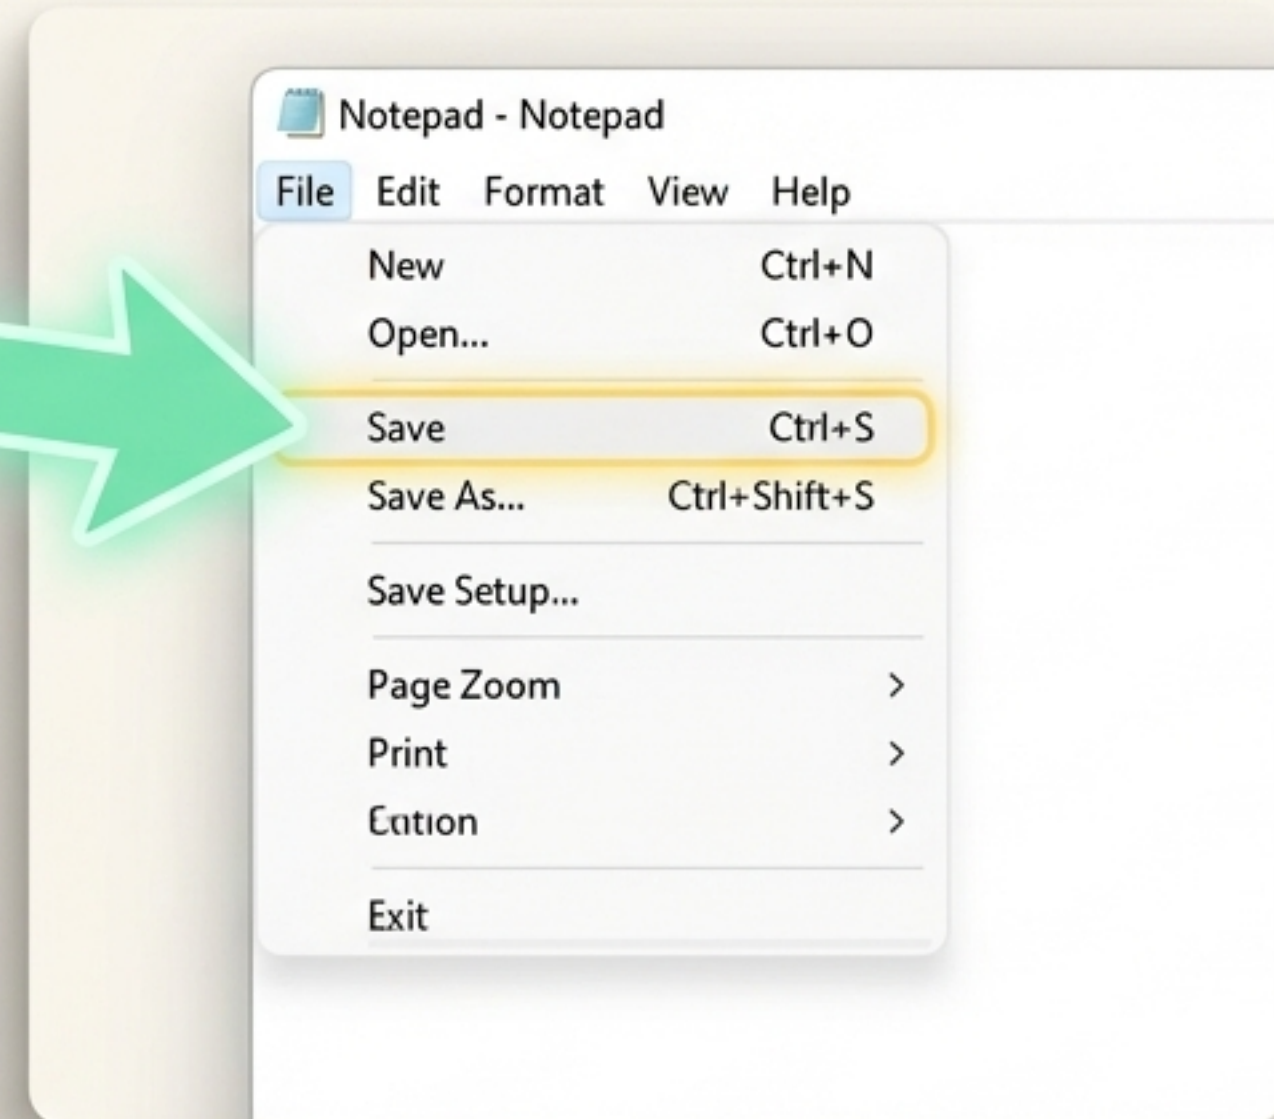

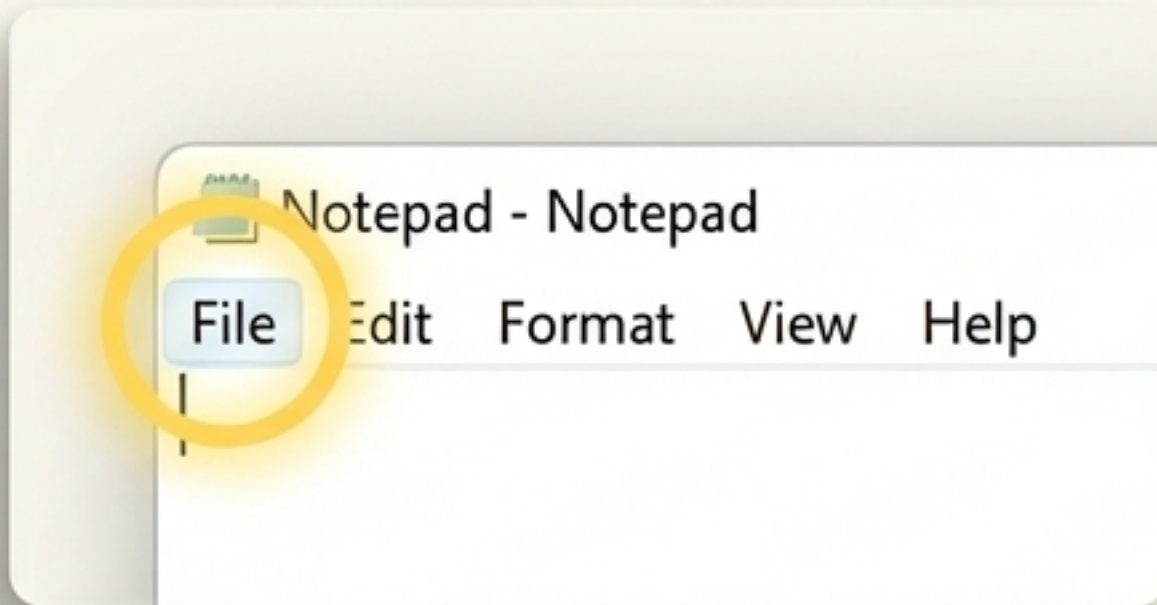

The Golden Rule: Always Save Your Work!

It is very important to save your document after you finish.
So that you can open and use it later.

How to save your work.

First, click File at the top. Next, click Save from the list.

Make a home for your file.

Give your poem a safe place to live by creating a brand new folder directly on your Desktop.

Desktop

Name your masterpiece.

You did it!

Your folder is right on your Desktop. Inside, your poem is safe, clean, and ready for you to open next time.

Your New Digital Workflow

"From now on, I can use my computer to write all my stories and poems! I don't have to worry about making mistakes."

Your digital canvas is ready.
What will you write today?