

- A Spreadsheet stores information in columns and rows. This arrangement of information can make calculations simple and accurate.
- Numbers, texts, charts, graphs, and formulas can be added in a spreadsheet. This can make it easier to understand and analyse the information.

